Diversity Statement

It is important to Union Project's mission that our programs and events are fully inclusive, and that our team is representative of the communities we work within. We strongly encourage people from underrepresented populations to apply.

It is the Union Project's intent to provide equal opportunity for all persons. It is the Union Project's policy that all qualified applicants for employment will be recruited, hired, and assigned on the basis of merit without regard to race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, or disability. UP employment policies and diversity plan have been, and will continue, to ensure that all qualified individuals are treated equally with no discrimination in compensation, opportunities for advancement (including promotions and transfers), training and discipline based on race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, or disability.

About Union Project: Union Project is a non-profit organization that uses the arts to bridge gaps between communities.

Located in a historic building at the intersection of diverse neighborhoods, we enrich lives and strengthen the stability of Pittsburgh's neighborhoods and residents. Since 2001, Union Project has empowered community members and leveraged the arts to create positive social change.

In FY19, Union Project will provide 26,000 experiences through community offerings, ranging from arts classes for people of all ages and skill levels, to professional development services for artists, to events that bring us all together.

To curate community programming, Union Project cultivates partnerships with artists, small businesses, nonprofits, and individuals – resulting in diverse and enriching public programming, and building community wealth together.

We value community, inclusivity, art and artists, collaboration, and joy. We envision a future where through the arts, everyone is able to transform their lives and communities.
